

BOOK REVIEWS

JOURNAL OF A TOUR ON THE NORTHWEST COAST OF AMERICA IN THE YEAR 1829. By Jonathan S. Green. (New York, Chas. Fred. Heartman, 1915. Pp. 105.)

This is a reprint of information found in early numbers of the Missionary Herald. There are references to the Sandwich Islands and descriptions of part of Oregon, California and the Northwest coast and of the native peoples. But 150 copies of the little book were printed and it will be prized in the collectors' libraries.

THE BORDER SETTLERS OF NORTHWESTERN VIRGINIA, FROM 1768 TO 1795. By Lucullus Virgil McWhorter. (Hamilton, Ohio, for Judge J. C. McWhorter, 1915. Pp. 509.)

This book is not in the field covered by this Quarterly, but it is the work of a citizen of North Yakima in this State. As a local product it calls for mention. Mr. McWhorter is the author of a work formerly noted,—“The Crime Against the Yakimas.” This new work is beautifully printed and illustrated. It is fortified with documents and will undoubtedly receive a warm welcome among the local historians in the neighborhood of Virginia.

A CALIFORNIA CHRONOLOGY, 1510-1860. Compiled by Orra Eugene Monnette. (Los Angeles California, 1915. Pp. 52.)

This little book is neatly printed and illustrated. Three hundred copies were privately published. The records are very brief but they will prove valuable for quick reference.

REVIEW OF HISTORICAL PUBLICATIONS RELATING TO CANADA, Volume 19, 1914. Edited by George M. Wrong, H. H. Langton and W. S. Wallace. (Toronto, University of Toronto Press, 1915. Pp. 247.)

The Quarterly welcomes the opportunity of examining this annual bibliographical guide to the literature of Canadian history. The section relating to the Province of British Columbia contains some thirty pages devoted to the important books and magazine articles of 1914. The reviews are discriminating and apparently great care is taken to give a fair and adequate evaluation of the year's historical product. Conspicuous
