Roger Sherman Greene

Judge Greene has recently changed his Oakland, California, address to 1954 East 27th Street. His many pioneer friends will rejoice to know of his good health in his eighty-ninth year. He was born in Roxbury Highlands, Boston, on December 14, 1840. He was Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Washington Territory, 1870-1879, and Chief Justice, 1879-1887. He was Master in Chancery, United States Court, Western District of the State of Washington, 1906-1917. He has served as a Trustee of the Washington University State Historical Society since its organization twenty-five years ago.

Vancouver's Memory

Under this title the Daily Province of Vancouver, British Columbia, published on June 24, 1929, an editorial seeking wider honors for the great discoverer and explorer. Many readers of the Washington Historical Quarterly will be interested in the suggestions offered. The editorial is therefore reprinted here as follows:

It would be a gracious thing if the city of Vancouver, following the suggestion made by the Native Sons of British Columbia, should undertake to perform "an annual act of remembrance" at the graveside of Captain George Vancouver at Petersham, England. A movement is on foot in the city to erect a monument to the man who has come to be regarded as Vancouver's patron saint, and Dead-
