

Announcement:

- ¶ Volume V begins with this number and carries a promise of going forward with improvement.
- ¶ Wilke's History of Oregon, which has occupied the Reprint Department since this Quarterly was founded, is completed in this number. At this time it is a pleasure to publish the article on George Wilkes prepared by Clarence B. Bagley after extensive researches.
- ¶ History interests in the Northwest will receive an impetus by a special meeting in Seattle of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association during the coming spring.
- ¶ The visit of Professor Frederick J. Turner of Harvard to the Coast during the coming summer is anticipated with pleasure by those who are at work in the field of history.
- ¶ Professor Albert Bushwell Hart of Harvard writes: "I feel under constant obligations for the Washington Historical Quarterly, out of which I take the greater part and distribute it in my notes. It is full of meaty source material not to be found elsewhere"
