

number of manuscript documents from the library of the donors father, General Manning Force. Among these books are many early publications of American historical societies and the gift goes far toward completing important sets of which the Library was already in possession of the more recent volumes.

Among noteworthy single volumes, may be cited Robertson's "Oregon, our right and title," one of the rarest of all the books relating to the Oregon question, also such fundamental sources as Maximillan's "Travels" and McKenny and Hall's "History of the Indian Tribes of North America." Additional interest is drawn to these books from the fact that the donor is a grandson of Peter Force, compiler of the "American Archives" and a famous book collector of the early 19th Century.

Professor Golder in Europe

Professor Frank A. Golder of the Washington State College has been appointed special agent of the Hoover War Collection of Stanford University. He has already sent from London valuable additions to the Collection and he is now in France securing materials supplementing the large collection made there previously by Professor E. D. Adams. It is expected that Professor Golder will spend a year in this important work.

Professor Morris in London

Accompanying Professor Golder on the journey, Professor William A. Morris has gone to London where he is now at work in the British Museum and the Public Record Office studying British constitutional history. He is a member of the faculty of the University of California and is also well known in the Northwest from his work on the faculties of the University of Washington and Oregon. He is a native son of Oregon.

American Historical Association

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the American Historical Association was held in Washington, D. C., December 27-30. Two especially interesting portions of the programme were "General Session Commemorating the Pilgrim Tercentenary," with Professor Edward Channing, of Harvard, as chairman, and "Conference:
