Announcements

- Attention is called to the closing paragraph of the article on "Newspapers of Washington territory", wherein a request is made for criticism and especially of errors or omission. About January 1, 1923, it is planned to have the completed series of articles issued in book-form. For that reason corrections will be especially welcome.
- Clarence B. Bagley has given us a human-interest document in his article on "Crossing the Plains". He was under nine years of age when the great journey was made in 1852 and yet he retains a keen memory of the interesting experiences.
- The centennial of Arthur A. Denny's birthday is made the occasion of publishing a brief bibliography of works by and about him. It was prepared in the University of Washington Library School.
- An effort is being made to secure a series of articles on topics concerning the industrial and commercial history of the State for forthcoming issues of this publication.
