

Lafayette National Park. Struggles for adequate maintenance of the larger parks will be favorably modified by a swift and general approval of this fine gift from the people.

The Western Gateway to World Trade. By CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD, NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY, GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY. (Chicago and St. Paul: Passenger Traffic Managers of the Companies, 1924. Pp. 31. Free.)

Treasure Lands of the Pacific Northwest. By CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & QUINCY RAILROAD, NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY, GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY. (Chicago and St. Paul: Passenger Traffic Managers of the Companies, 1924. Pp. 31. Free.)

The latest numbers in a series of booklets well described by the titles. The previous issues are entitled The Land of Opportunity Now, Through the American Wonderland, A Business of Your Own in Poultryland, Timber Billions of the Pacific Northwest, There is a Happy Land, The Land of Better Farms, Power for Supremacy. Of course it is all railroad advertising material but collectors of Northwest Americana will do well to save the booklets. They are well written, beautifully illustrated and printed on first class paper. They carry valuable information in compact form and the advertising is not obtrusive. It consists of two pages in the back of each booklet under the caption: "See the Pacific Northwest" and bearing the names of P. S. Eustis, A. B. Smith and A. J. Dickinson, Passenger Traffic Managers of the three cooperating railroads.

Mandan and Hidatsa Music. By FRANCES DENSMORE. (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1923. Pp. 192. $0.60.)

Excavations in the Chama Valley, New Mexico. By J. A. JEANCON. (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1923. Pp. 80. $0.75.)

Bulletins 80 and 81 are well described by the titles. The usual high standard of printing is maintained. There are abundant illustrations, diagrams and music scores. Though outside the field of this Quarterly, they are mentioned here on account of the growing interest in ethnology throughout the Pacific Northwest.
