

"Part I. The Revolutionary War and the Struggle for Economic Independence, 1775-1820.

"Part II. Economic Expansion, 1820 to the Civil War.

"Part III. Economic Expansion Since the Civil War."

Appendixes and indexes add greatly to the usefulness of the book as a tool for intensive study.

A Guide to the Principal Sources for Early American History; (1600-1800) in the City of New York. By EVARTS B. GREENE and RICHARD B. MORRIS. (New York: Columbia University Press, 1929. Pp. 357. $7.50).

The title clearly shows the scope of this book as an adequate tool for those working in New York in the important field of early American history. The materials listed and appropriately arranged are startling in amount and value. The limitations of dates preclude the listing of materials relating directly to the Pacific Northwest.

Roumania Ten Years After. By THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS RIGHTS AND MINORITIES. (Boston: The Beacon Press, Inc., 1929. Pp. 143).

A commission of five prominent churchmen made a survey of matters pertaining to religious rights and expressed the hope that this report would be informative to the large committee in America who sent them but also of "constructive suggestion to the Roumanian government when it has had an opportunity to see how the situation looks to outside and unprejudiced persons."

Europe: A History of Ten Years. By RAYMOND LESLIE BUELL. (New York: The Macmillan Company, 1929. Pp. 452. $2.00).

The author has been Research Director of the Foreign Policy Association since 1927. He has had extensive academic experience and is the author of a number of other books, mostly on international relations. This book, dealing with Europe since the World War, has had five printings since its first appearance in September, 1928. That fact is eloquent of its merits. The present edition is revised with addition of new materials.

Captain Cook Sesquicentennial, Hawaii 1928. By ALBERT PIERCE TAYLOR, LIBRARIAN, Archives of Hawaii. (Honolulu: Captain Cook Sesquicentennial Commission and the Archives of Hawaii Commission, 1929. Pp. 105).

Great care and labor have gone into this record of the elaborate
