ain of May 5, 1910. The Joint Commission must give its approval before the natural level of waters at the boundary can be raised or lowered. The application for the dam at Kettle Falls was dismissed.

CALIFORNIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY. (San Francisco, the Society, 1913. Pp. 14.)

This slender little pamphlet contains the list of officers and members of the society. It is evidence that efforts will soon be made to publish some researches that will be helpful to students on the Pacific Coast.

THE INTERNATIONAL MIND. By Nicholas Murray Butler. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons, 1913. Pp. 121.)

This is a collection of the annual addresses by the President of Columbia University at the Lake Mohonk Conference. It is distributed by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 2 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C. It is an excellent book for cultivating public opinion in favor of international peace.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN. (Madison, Published by the Society, 1913. Pp. 260.)

The portion of this book which relates to the Pacific Northwest is found on pages 87 to 123, where John Thomas Lee gives additional data about Captain Jonathan Carver. Anything relating to the man who invented or first used the word "Oregon" is of interest in this region. Mr. Lee seeks to defend Carver from the critics and he submits a number of documents from the British Museum and elsewhere. It looks as though Carver will emerge with a fairer name than his critics left him a few years ago.

PICKETT AND HIS MEN. By La Salle Corbell Pickett. (Philadelphia and London, J. B. Lippincott Company, 1913. Pp. 313. $2.50 net.)

The widow of General George E. Pickett has here issued a revised and enlarged edition of her well known book. The new illustrations include a picture of the military bridge built by Pickett across Whatcom Creek in 1857 and "Idlewild" at Friday Harbor, San Juan Island. This little building was used as headquarters by Captain Pickett while on San Juan Island. At that time, however, it was on the southern end of the island. Later Judge E. D. Warbass, who greatly admired Pickett, moved the building to Friday Harbor and occupied it as his home during the balance of his long life.

The reunion of the "Blue" and the "Gray" at Gettysburg will refresh the memories of many that the man who led "Pickett's Charge" had part of his early career on Puget Sound. Mrs. Pickett's book has two chapters on San Juan.
