Announcement:

☞ Source materials will be found to predominate in this number. Both the Journal of John Work and the newly discovered Vancouver journal are continued. Each is sure to be consulted by future writers in this field.

☞ The article about the work of the Hudson's Bay Company on the Columbia River, was obtained by T. C. Elliott, a consistent friend of this Quarterly.

☞ The visit in the Northwest of Professor Frederick J. Turner, of Harvard University, is sure to prove inspirational to the activities represented by this Quarterly.

☞ Encouragement continues to arrive from those who appreciate sincere efforts to collect and save historic records of value.
