

made possible the great strides in national development for which other men have received full measure of attention and praise."

That is the thesis of the work which has been done in a sympathetic spirit and with evident skill. The book has an index and eight illustrations, including helpful maps. The dedicatory page carries the simple words, "To My Wife."

MANUSCRIPTS FROM THE BURTON HISTORICAL COLLECTION. Edited by M. A. Burton. (Detroit, C. M. Burton, October, 1916. Pp. 32.)

This is the first of a proposed series of four numbers of historical pamphlets. The purpose of the series is to print certain of the rarer documents contained in the Burton Historical Collection now a part of the Detroit Public Library. Short but illuminating specimens fill this number. The dates range from 1754 to 1795.

PROLEGOMENA TO HISTORY, THE RELATION OF HISTORY TO LITERATURE, PHILOSOPHY, AND SCIENCE. By Frederick J. Teggart. (Berkeley, University of California Press, 1916. Pp. 155 to 292, being Number 3 of Volume IV., University of California Publications in History. In paper covers, $1.50.)

Mr. Teggart is Associate Professor of History and Curator of the Bancroft Library in the University of California.

His book is the result of patient years of study and reflection. The abundant footnotes reveal the breadth of his searching. In addition to the inclusiveness of the title, the brief table of contents will give an adequate idea of the work—"Introduction, The Method of Science, Historical Investigation and Historiography, History and Philosophy, History and Evolution, Bibliographical Appendix."

TEN THOUSAND MILES WITH A DOG SLED, A NARRATIVE OF WINTER TRAVEL IN INTERIOR ALASKA. By Hudson Stuck. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons, 1916. Pp. 420. $1.75.)

This is a second edition of the interesting book by the vigorous Archdeacon of the Yukon. He says he has made but little change beyond a few footnotes, a second preface and the correction of one printer's error. The new edition is beautifully printed and illustrated.

GRAY MEMORIAL CELEBRATION. By William D. Lyman and Others. (Walla Walla, Washington, Whitman College, 1916. Pp. 24.)

The Whitman College Quarterly, Volume XIX., Number 3, November, 1916, bears the title: "William H. Gray and Mary A. Dix
