

made possible the great strides in national development for which other men have received full measure of attention and praise."

That is the thesis of the work which has been done in a sympathetic spirit and with evident skill. The book has an index and eight illustrations, including helpful maps. The dedicatory page carries the simple words, "To My Wife."

MANUSCRIPTS FROM THE BURTON HISTORICAL COLLECTION. Edited by M. A. Burton. (Detroit, C. M. Burton, October, 1916. Pp. 32.)

This is the first of a proposed series of four numbers of historical pamphlets. The purpose of the series is to print certain of the rarer documents contained in the Burton Historical Collection now a part of the Detroit Public Library. Short but illuminating specimens fill this number. The dates range from 1754 to 1795.

PROLEGOMENA TO HISTORY, THE RELATION OF HISTORY TO LITERATURE, PHILOSOPHY, AND SCIENCE. By Frederick J. Teggart. (Berkeley, University of California Press, 1916. Pp. 155 to 292, being Number 3 of Volume IV., University of California Publications in History. In paper covers, $1.50.)

Mr. Teggart is Associate Professor of History and Curator of the Bancroft Library in the University of California.

His book is the result of patient years of study and reflection. The abundant footnotes reveal the breadth of his searching. In addition to the inclusiveness of the title, the brief table of contents will give an adequate idea of the work—"Introduction, The Method of Science, Historical Investigation and Historiography, History and Philosophy, History and Evolution, Bibliographical Appendix."

TEN THOUSAND MILES WITH A DOG SLED, A NARRATIVE OF WINTER TRAVEL IN INTERIOR ALASKA. By Hudson Stuck. (New York, Charles Scribner's Sons, 1916. Pp. 420. $1.75.)

This is a second edition of the interesting book by the vigorous Archdeacon of the Yukon. He says he has made but little change beyond a few footnotes, a second preface and the correction of one printer's error. The new edition is beautifully printed and illustrated.

GRAY MEMORIAL CELEBRATION. By William D. Lyman and Others. (Walla Walla, Washington, Whitman College, 1916. Pp. 24.)

The Whitman College Quarterly, Volume XIX., Number 3, November, 1916, bears the title: "William H. Gray and Mary A. Dix Gray Memorial Celebration." The account of the memorial ceremonies there recorded includes the historical address given by William D. Lyman, Blalock Professor of History in Whitman College. The title of his address is: "The Place of William H. Gray in History."

Mr. Gray was a colleague of Dr. Marcus Whitman in the famous Waiilatpui mission. For that reason his biography is of especial interest to all friends of Whitman College. The theme is also of interest to all students of Northwestern history. This issue of the Whitman College Quarterly will be one of the choice items of collectors within a short time.

OUTLINE FOR THE STUDY OF THE HISTORY OF IDAHO. By H. L. Talkington. (Boise, Idaho, State Board of Education, 1916. Pp. 20.)

Professor Talkington is at the head of the department of history in the Lewiston State Normal School. In this bulletin he gives an outline as suggested by the title and he has also assembled titles of books and other publications that will help in the pursuit of such studies. It is, of course, intended for the use of educational institutions in Idaho.

THE EARLY HISTORY OF CUBA, 1492-1586. By I. A. Wright. (New York, The Macmillan Company, 1916. Pp. 390. $2.00.)

The title-page carries the phrase: "written from original sources." It is not a source book containing the documents themselves, but is written from those documents as studied by the author among the archives in Spain. American historians are always interested in fresh studies of Columbus and his followers.

The table of contents indicates four divisions: "Book I. 1492-1524, Spain Takes Possession of Cuba; Book II. 1524-1567, An Era of Stagnation; Book III. 1550-1567, French Influence; Book IV. 1567-1586, The Menace of the English." The volume is equipped with a glossary and three indexes—of topics, persons and places.

THE CONTROL OF STRIKES IN AMERICAN TRADE UNIONS. By George Milton Janes. (Baltimore, The Johns Hopkins Press, 1916. Pp. 131. $1.00.)

Doctor Janes is now a member of the faculty of the University of Washington. For that reason, though the book does not deal with the Pacific Northwest, it is well to mention it here.

The author tells in his preface how the book was prepared: "This monograph had its origin in an investigation carried on by its author while a member of the Economic Seminary of the Johns Hopkins
