Pacific Salmon Fisheries. By JOHN N. COBB. (Washington, D. C.; Government Printing Office, 1912. Pp. 268. 35 cts.)

This is listed as Bureau of Fisheries Document No. 902. It is the third edition of Mr. Cobb's valuable report and brings the statistical data up to January 1, 1920. The first edition appeared in 1911 and the second in 1917. Since then Mr. Cobb has become Director of the College of Fisheries, University of Washington. This book deals mostly with the species of fish, their culture, capture, preparation and the commerce resulting. The statistics and general information of the important industry make the work valuable also for history.

Year Book of the Washington Society of the Sons of the Revolution. By WILLIAM DAVID PERKINS, DOUGLAS CARROL CONOVER and GEORGE HYDE PRESTON, Committee. (Seattle: The Society, 1921. Pp. 62.)

Here are compiled the constitution and by-laws, lists of officers and members showing the foundation for membership of each member. The many prominent citizens whose ancestors participated in the War for American Independence and the facts of such participation being set forth give this book a peculiar biographical importance.

Reports. By CLAUDE C. RAMSAY. (Seattle: Privately printed. Pp. 15.)

Mr. Ramsay is chairman of the Board of Commissioners of King County, Washington. This pamphlet resulted from a journey through Eastern States after which he made reports to the Board of County Commissioners of King County on "County Government Facilities in Eastern Counties"; to the Joint Board of Commissioners of King and Pierce Counties on "Flood Control"; and to the Building Managers Association of Seattle on "Federal Buildings." The three reports are here assembled for future use and reference.

Report for 1920. By DIRECTOR F. KERMODE. (Victoria, B. C.: Provincial Museum of Natural History, 1921. Pp. 32.)

A Preliminary Catalogue of the Flora of Vancouver and Queen Charlotte Islands. By DIRECTOR F. KERMODE. (Victoria, B.C.: Provincial Museum of Natural History, 1921. Pp. 87.)

The contents of the two pamphlets may easily be inferred from the titles. They show that Washington's northern neighbor is progressing in the fields of scientific research and in the building of a substantial and serviceable museum.

Women in American History. By GRACE HUMPHREY. (Indianapolis: The Bobbs-Merrill Company, 1919. Pp. 223. $1.25, net.)

Betsy Ross, Martha Washington, Dolly Madison, Julia Ward Howe and others are subjects of the fifteen chapters. The one particularly related to the Pacific Northwest is Sacajawea. From page 80 to page 100 the interesting story of the "Bird Woman," one of the guides of the famous Lewis and Clark Expedition, is told. The author used the original journals of the Expedition, the book by James Willard Schultz, (one of the latest and best on the subject) and other works in compiling her story.

The Roosevelt Memorial Association. (New York: The Association, 1921. Pp. 36.)

Some of the most prominent men and women in contemporary American life are behind the great movement to build suitable memorials for Theodore Roosevelt. This little pamphlet tells all about the organization, its officers and progress of work. There is to be a monumental memorial in Washington to rank with the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial. Land is to be given and improved for a Roosevelt Memorial Park at Oyster Bay, New York. The third activity is known as the Bureau of Roosevelt Research and Information which serves to perpetuate the ideals of
