

tain Robert Gray who discovered the Columbia River on May 11, 1792. The words and air are by Elton S. Durkee. The music was arranged by John Olin and Sterling Rothermal, all of Chinook, and the printing was done in the office of the Chinook Observer. The first stanza runs as follows:

"If you've ever studied hist'ry
 You have heard of Captain Gray
 Who discovered our great river
 On a far and distant day.
 And it's written in the record
 Of the Captain's old log book
 That he cast his anchor in a bay
 Near the village of Chinook."

Compliments from Tacoma

In its issue for September 2, 1922, the Tacoma Daily Ledger reviews the contents of the last issue of the Washington Historical Quarterly in complimentary terms. Such evident purpose to help along the work is highly appreciated.

Pioneers of Lewiston

Robert D. Leeper, chairman of the pioneer reunion at Lewiston, Idaho, in sending an invitation for the festivities on September 21-22, 1922, said they were making an effort to get out many of the old original pioneers of that section.
