The Mountain Peaks of Colorado. By ROGER W. TOLL. (Denver: The Colorado Mountain Club, 1923. Pp. 59.)

The author, Roger W. Toll, was formerly superintendent of the Mount Rainier National Park, and at present he holds that position in the Rocky Mountain National Park. This present work is a collection of statistics about all the peaks of Colorado. It is not generally realized that Colorado has forty-six peaks which are 14,000 or more feet above sea level. Bureau of American Ethnology, Thirty-fourth Annual Report, 1912-1913. (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1922. Pp. 281.)

Archeological Investigations. By GERARD FOWKE. (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1922. Pp. 204.)

These two scientific works have been delayed by reconstruction pressure since the war. The letter of transmittal of the first is dated August 5, 1913, and of the second February 17, 1920. The "Accompanying Paper" with the first volume is devoted to "A Prehistoric Island Culture Area of America," by J. Walter Fewkes. It occupies pages 35-281. Abundant illustrations add greatly to the value of the paper.

The second volume, Bulletin 76, is also sumptuously illustrated. The five subdivisions of the work are as follows: "Cave Explorations in the Ozark Region of Central Missouri," "Cave Explorations in Other States," "Explorations Along the Missouri River Bluffs in Kansas and Nebraska," "Aboriginal House Mounds," "Archeological Work in Hawaii."
