

The Austin Papers.— Edited by EUGENE C. BARKER. (Washington: American Historical Association, 1924. Two volumes. Pp. 1824. $1.25 per volume.)

The two volumes are parts 1 and 2 of Volume II. of the Annual Report of the American Historical Association for the year 1919. They comprise the fifteenth report of the Historical Manuscripts Commission. The exhaustive work is of greatest interest to Texas. Most of the manuscripts and other materials were found in the Library of the University of Texas. They trace the progress of the busy enterprises of Moses and Stephen F. Austin from Virginia through Missouri and Arkansas to Texas. In his preface, the editor says: "Moses Austin illustrated in his own career the typical aspects of the business man in the Westward Movement; and Stephen F. Austin was, to a degree not approached by any other colonial proprietor in our history, the founder and the indispensable guardian and director during its early vicissitudes of a great American Commonwealth."
