Announcements

- ¶ As announced in the last issue four of the five papers on the Pacific Rim, presented at the twenty-first annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association, are published as a symposium in this issue.
- ¶ Within three months this Quarterly lost heavily in the death of Judge Thomas Burke and Judge Cornelius H. Hanford. Both were Trustees of the Washington University State Historical Society from its beginning.
- ¶ Materials associated with Captain George Vancouver are always cordially welcome. Mrs. William Pitt Trimble helped us with an original letter for this issue and another came by way of the University of Oregon just as we were going to press.
- ¶ Professor R. B. Mowat, Oxford, who will be a visiting member of the history staff at the University of Washington during the summer of 1926, has just published through Edward Arnold & Co., London, The Diplomatic Relations of Great Britain and the United States.
- ¶ William S. Lewis of Spokane and J. Orin Oliphant of Cheney continue their activities in the field of Northwest History. Each has prepared an article for the next issue.
