

their numbers. This constitutes the guide for teaching Wyoming history by counties.

John T. Condon. By CLARK PRESCOTT BISSETT. (Seattle: Privately published, 1926. Pp. 14.)

Professor Bissett's beautiful tribute to his colleague and friend delivered at the funeral of John T. Condon, Dean of the University of Washington Law School, on Saturday, January 9, 1926, has been published in a neat booklet for friends and associates. The eulogy is prefaced by a brief biography and dedicated by the Alumni Association of the University of Washington to the memory of "The Dean."

The Educational Services of President N. D. Showalter. By J. ORIN OLIPHANT. (Cheney, Washington: Alumni Association of the State Normal School, Cheney, Washington, 1926. Pp. 20.)

This brief pamphlet preserves in compact form a remarkable tribute of professional respect and downright love for Noah David Showalter who recently retired from the presidency of the State Normal School at Cheney, Washington.

The author is himself an alumnus, of the Class of 1913. The educational history of President Showalter is told in a straightforward way but each page breathes affection for the leader and the man. The last nine pages are given to the expression of tributes from educational and professional men and women from different parts of Washington and from other States.

History of the American Frontier 1763-1893. By FREDERIC L. PAXSON. (Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 1926. Pp. 598. $3.50.)

This is a "student's edition" of Professor Paxson's well known book which was awarded the Pulitzer prize of $2,000 for the best book of 1924 on the history of the United States. The last part of the title is misleading as the final chapter brings the date down to the admission to statehood of Arizona and New Mexico in 1912.

The Blazed Trail of the Old Frontier. By AGNES C. LAUT. (New York: Robert M. McBride and Company, 1926. Pp. 266. $4.00.)

A sub-title declares this to be the log of the Upper Missouri Historical Expedition of 1925. Mention has heretofore been