Announcements

- ¶ One of the Contributing Editors, Judge F. W. Howay, of New Westminster, is prominent in this issue. In addition to the leading article on "The Trading Voyages of the Atahualpa," he has furnished several book reviews and in the News Department there is recorded an honor conferred upon him by the Massachusetts Historical Society.
- ¶ Copy for the Document in this issue, "Robert Robe's Diary While Crossing the Plains in 1851" was furnished by Mr. Robe's grandson, Cecil F. Robe, who is a graduate student at the University of Washington.
- ¶ Mr. Creer, author of the article "The Great Basin Before 1850," is Assistant Professor of History in the University of Washington. He is a native of Utah and had access to manuscript records in that State when assembling his materials for the article.
- ¶ Mr. James White, of the Department of Justice in Canada, furnished valuable material for the article, "The Name of Mount Robson a Puzzle."
- ¶ The article "Yakima Days" is a long contribution and will have to be continued. The author, Denys Nelson, has had the help of unique manuscript records.
- ¶ Ray T. Cowell, author of the article, "Fort Lawton," is a graduate student in the University of Washington.
- ¶ There is abundant promise of success for Volume XIX., beginning with this issue for January, 1928.
