

Announcements

¶ It is hoped that the series of articles on the progress of science in the State of Washington will be resumed in the next issue. A few messages of commendation of the program are given in this number.

¶ Francis A. Garrecht, former United States District Attorney, now a citizen of Spokane, contributes an interesting account of his being made a chief of the Yakima tribe of Indians.

¶ The valuable article on "Yakima Days" by Denys Nelson of Fort Langley, British Columbia, is concluded in this issue.

¶ D. A. Brown, Secretary of the Skamania County Historical Society procured for the Quarterly the article "Recollections of a Pioneer" by Elizabeth R. Holtgrieve.

¶ J. Neilson Barry, a frequent contributor, has another valuable article in this issue in which is revealed the origin of one of the words in the Chinook Jayon.

¶ William S. Lewis of Spokane begins in this issue an article on mining experiences in the sixties.

¶ The News Department carries a number of items—some sad, as announcing the death of historical persons, and some joyous, as acknowledging gifts of historical value.
