

At Old Fort Laramie, Wyoming, a similar pioneers' reunion was held on August 15. R. S. Ellison was chairman and the speakers included Governor Frank C. Emerson, former Governor B. B. Brooks, of Wyoming, and Congressman Simmons of Nebraska. A pageant featured a covered wagon train. There was also a stage coach holdup and other events in which Indians and pioneers participated.

---

Professor J. Orin Oliphant

Over a period of ten or more years, Professor J. Orin Oliphant has contributed valued articles and for the past six years, he has served as a Contributing Editor of the Washington Historical Quarterly. He was a member of the administration and instructional staffs of the State Normal School at Cheney, except during the past three years while completing his work for the Doctor of Philosophy degree at Harvard. He has now accepted the position of Professor of Social Science at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio. Many friends in the State of Washington are following his progress with confident interest.