

Announcements

- ¶ Again Judge F. W. Howay, of New Westminster, British Columbia, has prepared a new chapter in the marine history of the Pacific Northwest, "Captain Cornelius Sowle on the Pacific."
- ¶ His neighbor and friend, Professor Walter N. Sage, of the University of British Columbia, also deals with the time when British Columbia was a part of the Oregon Country with his article, "A Note on the Origins of the Strife Between Sir George Simpson and Dr. John McLoughlin."
- ¶ Walker Allison Tompkins in preparing his Article "The Big Bottom (Lewis County) 1833-1933," spent considerable time in that interesting section of the State of Washington examining records and interviewing pioneers.
- ¶ The Lotzgesell family know at first hand about the pioneer days of Old Dungeness.
- ¶ Professor Frederick E. Bolton's article, "High Schools in Territorial Washington," is concluded in this issue.
- ¶ Mr. Barry's intensive study of the Astorians proceeds with the second installment in this issue.
- ¶ The News Department has a number of important chronicles of historic events.
- ¶ The index for this volume was prepared in the University of Washington Library as at the end of former volumes.