

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

Alenka Koron is a research fellow and librarian at the Institute of Slovenian Literature and Literary Studies, ZRC SAZU, Ljubljana. Her main fields of research are narrative theory, literary theory and methodology of literary scholarship, theory of autobiography, theory of discourse, and modern Slovenian and foreign fiction. She has co-edited a monograph, Avtobiografski diskurz (Autobiographical discourse [Ljubljana 2011]), and is the author of Sodobne teorije pripovedi (Contemporary narrative theories [Ljubljana 2014]). koron@zrc-sazu.si

Ana Toroš is on the faculty at the School of Humanities and a research fellow at the Research Centre for Humanities (University of Nova Gorica). Her main research interest is literature along the Slovenia-Italy border. She has published Trieste and its Surroundings, as Pictured in Slovene and Italian Poetry from the First Half in the 20th Century (2011) and Oh Sweet Earth: Stone, Grain, Juice. Alojz Gradnik and the Romance and Germanic worlds (2013). In 2014, she received the Brda Municipality award for research contributing to the prominence of Alojz Gradnik and Brda in academic circles. Ana.Toros@ung.si

Alenka Žbogar is a professor of Slovenian Literature and Didactic of Literature at the University of Ljubljana. Her research interests are contemporary Slovenian short stories, reception of Slovenian literature, literary reading and differentiation of learning literature in various educational systems. She recently edited Recepcija slovenske književnosti (Reception of Slovenian literature 2014). alenka.zbogar@guest.arnes.si

Metka Zupancič is professor of French at the University of Alabama. Her research interests include contemporary French and Francophone literature, critical theory, and translation studies. She has translated novels and critical essays (e.g., by C. Simon, H. Bosco, R. Sabatier, and S. Ousmane) from French into Slovene. She has published on myth and spirituality in contemporary French and Francophone literature (Les écrivaines contemporaines et les mythes. Le remembrement au féminin, 2013; Hélène Cixous: texture mythique et alchimique, 2007; Lectures de Claude Simon, 2001). mzupancic@ua.edu