

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

Zoran Božič is an assistant professor at the Faculty of Humanities at the University of Nova Gorica. He is the author of Slovenska literatura v šoli in Prešeren and of numerous articles on Prešeren, the reception of poetry, and women writers. His most recent monograph is France Prešeren's poems: Understanding, evaluation, interpretation (Saarbrücken 2014). He has compiled two manuals for independent study of world literature, Zlati poljub and Poljub zlata. zoran.bozic@ung.si

Urška Perenič is a faculty member in the Department of Slovene Literature at the University of Ljubljana. She specializes in the theory and methodology of empirical literary studies and carries out concrete empirical projects. She also does research on the history of Slovene literature, in particular narrative techniques and social forms of literary life. Her recent, interdisciplinary research is on socio-geographical space and the development of Slovene literature. The resulting publications analyze spatial data from the biographies of individuals and institutions in Slovene literary history. urska.perenic@gmail.com
