

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

The authors of articles in this volume are as follows:

JANEZ CVIRN is Assistant Professor of History at the University of Ljubljana. He has published two books about Germans in Celje, and is currently working on a book on German-Slovene relations in Lower Styria during the period 1848-1918.

MARINA GRŽINIČ, Research Associate, Institute of Philosophy ZRC SAZU, has published extensively on modern art, culture and social phenomena. She is co-author of the book Ljubljana, Ljubljana (1991) and co-producer of several video art productions that have won major awards.

SANDI KODRIČ received his M.A. from Simon Fraser University, Burnaby BC, Canada. He is currently Research Associate in the Laboratory for Language and Speech Technologies at the Jožef Stefan Institute in Ljubljana.

NIKE KOCIJANČIČ is a Research Assistant in the Department of English, Faculty of Arts, University of Ljubljana. She specializes in translation practice and theory.

HERTA MAURER-LAUSEGGER is Universitätsassistent at the University of Klagenfurt. Her areas of research are Carinthian Slovene dialectology, ethnology and sociolinguistics.

JERNEJA PETRIČ: see Slovene Studies 13/1: 126.

JOŽE PIRJEVEC is Professor of East European History at the University of Padua. His specialization is the history of Yugoslavia in the 19th and 20th centuries. His publications include several books, the most recent being Serbi, Croati, Sloveni. Storia di tre nazioni (1995).

MARJETICA POTRČ, an artist whose sculpture has been exhibited internationally, is Associate Professor, Department of Design, Academy of Fine Arts, Ljubljana.

DONALD F. REINDL is a graduate student at Indiana University. His area of study is Comparative and Historical Slavic Linguistics, with specialization in South Slavic. At present he is a 1994-95 Soros Fellow in Čadca, Slovakia.

NADA ŠABEC is Assistant Professor in the Department of English and American Studies in the University of Maribor. Her areas of research are Slovene emigration, sociolinguistics, and language acquisition.

PETER VODOPIVEC is Professor of Modern History at Ljubljana University, specializing in 19th- and 20th-century history. Two of his recent English-language publications: an article in Nationalities Papers 1993 and a chapter in Independent Slovenia, ed. Benderly & Kraft 1994.

IGOR ZABEL, curator, Museum of Modern Art, Ljubljana, has curated several shows, and published a book of essays and two works of fiction.

KENNETH ZAPP is Professor of Economics and Finance at Metropolitan State University, Minneapolis. He is a consultant to a Slovene privatization agency and a Visiting Professor at the University of Ljubljana.